Draw Layout for booth space size and shape. Specify Front, back and sides.

Frontage = _____ feet Side = _____ feet

- Draw a plan of your booth perimeter. Include any ropes, tables, umbrellas, signage, etc., which are set up outside the booth itself. All of these things are part of your booth space square footage.
- Do customers walk around your booth? Include that space in your booth layout.
- Once you have determined your square footage, including necessary aisle space and anything outside your booth but included in your booth layout, use the rate schedule of the booth fees on page 1.
- Be accurate! You will only be allotted the square footage you have drawn and requested.

CAMPING

Vendors may camp within their booth space or behind if they have paid for extra square footage to accommodate a back area. Keep in mind no modern camping equipment should be visible to the public during festival hours.

There is a designated tent camping area behind the festival (follow and heed signs posted) which is very limited and is first come first served.

Trailer and RV parking is by reservation only. Please specify RV, Truck and trailer, truck with camper attached. Prices are as follows:

RV $10; Trailer & Truck $10; Truck with camper $5. Please fill out the information required for your camping vehicle on your vendor application. Include a separate check or money order for the camping along with your booth fee check. Make check out to History Revisited.

Festival Rules & Regulations

These rules and regulations apply to everyone participating in the Festival.

Make sure your booth workers are aware of all rules and regulations.

- No smoking anything anywhere on faire site.
- No open flames on faire site. No candles or lanterns or hibachis or fire pits.
- All booths must have a 3A40BC fire extinguisher.
- All booths must have a fire-retardant applied.
- No placement of anything within a fire lane.
- No pets allowed. Only service animals will be allowed. A service animal is required to be house-broken and under control of the owner at all times, per CFR.35.136. California law, like federal law, doesn't require that emotional support animals be allowed in public places. A service dog is not required to be registered, certified, or identified as a service dog. However, in California, pretending to be an owner of a service dog is a criminal misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $1,000 (and/or up to six months imprisonment).
- Vendors: You may camp within your booth, but not outside of it.
- All vehicles must be off of faire site by 8:30 a.m. each day of the weekend.
- All trash and debris must be placed in the dumpsters and your space must be clean at the end of Festival. Failure to have a clean space will result in a charge of $25 fee cleaning fee and/or rejection for future festivals.

I have read all the rules and regulations for the festival and I agree to comply with them. I understand that failure to do so may result in my expulsion from festival without refund of my booth fees and I may be barred from future History Revisited (HR) events.

I understand that booth fees are non-refundable. I understand that lost or missing wristbands will be replaced for a $5 charge.

I hereby authorize HR to use any and all audio and/or visual recording depicting my voice or person in period character or costume for promotional publication. This authorization includes but is not limited to photographs, audio tapes, video tapes, slides and other recordings.

HR enforces a drug-free environment at its events. All participants, vendors, entertainers, and HR members are expected to behave in accordance with this policy. I understand that the illegal use of controlled substances is in violation of the laws of the State of California and the policy of the Board of Directors of HR. I understand that the use of illegal substances by me and/or my booth staff may result in immediate expulsion from the event. I understand that it is my responsibility to inform my booth staff of all rules.

My signature below is evidence that all information provided to HR is true and correct and that I have not misrepresented items to be sold in any way.
