

Items Needed by all Participants for Slo Renn Faire

An inspection will be performed before the event on either Friday night or Saturday morning you will not be allowed to open if you do not pass inspection by the Health department, and the Fire department.

All extinguishers must be current with current years tag and current month of at least July in order to be legal.

There will be a fire extinguisher department on site for those that may need to have their extinguishers updated.